

Workshop in Collaboration with Standard Chartered Bank

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Falah University organized a workshop for the students in collaboration with Standard Chartered Bank and Injaz Training Center regarding having the necessary skills for preparing to answer the demands of the labor market.

Dr. Samer Abdelhadi, Dean of Student Affairs, Ms. Ghaida Al Rawashdeh, Head of General Education Department and several students attended the workshop which dealt with the importance of recognizing investment opportunities and saving money to improve the quality of life especially during times of financial emergencies.

For more Visit: <https://bit.ly/2mUTKPN>

Tags: Featured News