Attends the Rome Film Fest

A delegation of students from Al Falah University participated in the recently concluded Rome Film Fest under the supervision of Dr. Ashraf Jahmani, Assistant Professor from College of Business Administration and Ms. Ghaida Rawashdeh, Head of General Education Department. The delegation participated in backstage activities to learn about organizing film festivals and cinematic events.

During the visit, the students and faculty members stopped by Volterra, Florence to see the art museum Palazzo Viti Casa Museo and to experience Italian cuisine at the Le Cantine Del Palazzo.

The tour was also a cultural immersion for the students who were able to visit most of the important archaeological and tourist attractions in Milan which also included a stopover at the tourist island of Murano in Venice to see the Vetreria Artistica Colleoni – Murano Glass Factory. Students were appreciative of being able to experience first-hand the course of organizing international events.
