

Al Falah University Welcomes New Faculty Members

Al Falah University welcomes new members of the academic staff as organized by the Human Resources Unit to get the new staff acquainted with the present academic and administrative staff members.

In his welcoming speech, Prof. Abdelhafid Belarbi, AFU President, expressed his pleasure in meeting the new members, stressing the need for continued academic and administrative excellence. He also thanked the faculty and administrative staff for the effort exerted during the past academic year.

The meeting included explanations regarding the educational process in the different colleges in addition to providing a brief explanation of all the administrative units in the university. The meeting comes in preparation for the first semester of the new Academic Year 2018-2019.

For more Visit: <https://bit.ly/31Uvc8u>

Tags: Featured News