

In Celebration of AFU Students

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Falah University organized a ceremony honoring students who participated in the university activities during the academic year 2016 – 2017. Prof. Nasr Abbas, Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. Mohammed Al Dessouki, Dean of the College of Law and Prof. Khalifa Jaber, Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration attended the event.

The students were given certificates of thanks and appreciation for their active participation in internal and external activities with several community organizations.

Administrative members of AFU were also honored during the Reading Competition. First place went to Mrs. Hibatullah Jawhar, Secretary for the College of Mass Communication.
