

Affiliation between Al Falah University and the Cultural Attaché of the Embassy of Oman

Prof. Nasr Abbas, Director of Student Affairs Unit at Al Falah University had a meeting with the cultural attaché of the Embassy of Oman to the United Arab Emirates in Abu Dhabi, Dr. Mahmoud Salimi to discuss ways of strengthening academic cooperation and scientific relations between two parties.

This is to reinforce the role of the Cultural Mission of Oman Embassy which seeks to provide all information of interest to Omani students who wish to complete the stages of education in the United Arab Emirates in terms of admission, disciplines and programs recognized by the Ministry of Education in the Sultanate of Oman, which universities are recommended, tuition fees, housing information and many other services.

For his part, Prof. Abbas shared a detailed overview of Al Falah University and strategic plans for the future. The cooperation between AFU and the Cultural Attaché of the Embassy of Oman is beneficial for both parties in promoting opportunities for future possible Omani students.
